The Live Roots Primer \(\$\)

Anyone who has ever lost access to information because they no longer subscribe to a particular website will appreciate Judy Rosella Edwards article, "The Live Roots Primer," which explains the benefits of conducting your genealogy searches through the online, Live Roots website. The brain child of Genealogy Today owner, Illya D'Addezio, Live Roots is a remarkable aid to research that not only helps researchers locate genealogical information across the web, but also helps them manage and continue their research over time. The best news is that the Live Roots service is free and . . . accessible.
